Mr. Handy is a finished orator, and his lecture is rich, instructive, entertaining and full of good points. Single admission for members of the association is 25 cents and for non-members 35 cents.

A Small Boy Lost.

George Powers, a seven-year-old son of William Powers, of Martin's Ferry, wandered away from his parents' Tuesday night, and getting bewildered, wandered down into the Eighth ward, where he was picked up by Officer Minkemeyer, who took him to his home and kept him all night and until yesterday afternoon, when his parents found out where he was and telephoned for him.

Petty Thefts Reported.

A man who gave his name as Ackerman, and said he lived at Cumberland, which was the police yesterday that his watch had been stolen the night before.

William Shields was also reported to have had his pocket picked on Tuesday while in a crowd on the street.

Mrs. Albert Capps was also relieved of a pocket book containing several dollars while she was watching the procession pass the McClure house Tuesday night.

Transfers of Real Estate.

The following transfers of real estate were admitted to record in County Clerk Hook's office yesterday:

October 15, by Ward Wright and wife and others to E. A. Higgins, for $1,100, the west half of lot 118, on the north side of Virginia street, Island.

August 23, by G. L. Cramer, trustee, to Charles E. Lewis and others, for $5 and other considerations, the real estate of Velia Froy, deceased.

Also two deeds for lots in Greenwood cemetery to W. H. Rinehart.

A Child Badly Burned.

Myrtle Gately, a nine-year-old girl, was dangerously burned Tuesday afternoon, at Benwood. The little girl resides with her uncle, John Hartung, of the lower ward, as her mother is dead. In the absence of her aunt she attempted to rekindle a fire in the stove by using kerosene oil. There were some live coals in the grate, causing the oil to ignite, and rise in flames to the ceiling. The top of the stove and pipe were blown off, but the child retained presence of mind to throw the oil can far from her. Then she rushed from the house and across the street to a neighbor's house. She was badly burned about the face and neck, but her heavy woolen clothing prevented other injuries. Dr. McDonald was called and dressed the burns, which though very painful, need not disfigure her.

Birthday Celebration.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Captain Dillon celebrated her seventy-third birthday at her residence, 112 Fifteenth street. Mrs. Dillon received her guests from 3 to 6, assisted by her three daughters, Miss Ada Dillon, Mrs. J. E. Faris, of Kansas City, and Mrs. Ella Dillon-Martin, of Chicago. The celebration was in the nature of a surprise gotten up by the three daughters, and was complete in every way. Choice refreshments were served, and there were many substantial tokens of affection, accompanied by many wishes for returns of the day. Besides the numerous relatives, among the guests were: Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Riker, Mrs. George K. Wheat, Miss Jennie Norton, Mrs. Metcalf, Miss Sue Metcalf, Mrs. Ewing, Miss Annie Ewing, Mrs. Samuel Faris, Miss Mary Faris, Mrs. P. B. Dobbins, Mrs. Charles Killmeyer, Mrs. Little, Miss Lila Little, Mrs. McLain, Mrs. Adrain, Mrs. Surgison, Mrs. Dittman, Mrs. Henry Odbert, Mrs. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Seybold and Mr. William Graham.

EXCESSIVE ASSESSMENTS.

Several new Petitions for Corrections Filed Yesterday.

Yesterday the sub-committee of the Council committee on equalization and appeals finished up the Second and Third ward cases, and any petitions for corrections or reductions of assessments in those wards filed hereafter will have to lie over till next August.

Three new petitions were filed yesterday. They were as follows:

Conrad Apple, raised from $500 last year to $1,200; former was enough.

Harriet Watson, for Jacob Watson's estate, raised from $1,200 to $2,000; unjust.

Henry M. Russell, Esq., assessed on personal property $14,520; one item of $12,000 ought to be reduced to $1,700.

To-night's Entertainment.

The attention of this community ought to be drawn to the entertainment, which is to be given at the Grand Opera House this evening. It is for the benefit of that worthy charity which is quietly doing so much good, "The West Virginia Home for Aged and Friendless Women."

Mr. Genter has kindly furnished the Grand Opera House free of charge. It is to be regretted that other entertainments will occur at the same time, that may possibly interfere somewhat with its success, but as no other evening when the Grand Opera House could be obtained was open, it is greatly to be hoped that the charitably disposed lovers of good music and fine elocution will make a special effort to be present at this entertainment, and thus to aid in its labor of love the Home at a time when it is so sorely in need.

The music by the "Premier Mandolin Club," Mr. Will Day and others, and readings by Mrs. Alford, who have delighted so many, will doubtless give the patrons a delightful evening and help along a good work.

Grand Opera House.

The announcement that Mr. Harry W. Williams, of the Academy of Music, Pittsburgh, will present a new farce-comedy to Wheeling play goes is sufficient guarantee of its greatness. The company is composed of all first class artists, including the favorite Irish comedian Joseph J. Sullivan, and the ever popular German comedian, Larry Smith. It is the most costly farce comedy production ever put on any stage. All the scenery, wardrobe, songs and dances are original. The wardrobe used in the second act cost over fifteen hundred dollars. The piece is christened "Bill's Boot," and was constructed for laughing purposes only. "Bill's Boot" will open its Wheeling engagement at the Grand Opera House, Monday, October 24, and will give four performances, including a Wednesday matinee.

"Kajanka."

This famous spectacular piece will be at the Opera House Saturday afternoon and evening. The play affords ample scope for the introduction of some very good mechanical effects and specialties of more than ordinary merit. A couple of strolling vagabonds steal the jeweled eye of the god Vishnu and his magic flute and their adventure while pursued by the Brahmin priests lead to many curious situations. Azany plays the clown and is very amusing. The quartette dancers, composed of the two Sennet sisters and the Misses Tennessee and Wells please the audience immensely and always receive several encores. The greatest feature of the whole performance is the exhibition of the seven Cornalia brothers, consisting of gymnastic feats without apparatus.

"That Girl From Mexico."

To-night at the Opera House Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew will give the greatest comedy performance seen here for a long time. Seats were placed on sale Tuesday, and the indications point to a packed house. "Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew gave us last night the greatest comedy performance seen in twenty years."—Philadelphia Press.

"Mr. and Mrs. Drew and their company constitute the brightest comedy organization that has visited us this season."—Minneapolis Tribune.

Little's "World."

The famous drama Little's "World," will be at the Grand-to-morrow evening. A fine lot of scenery is introduced in this great production, and the company is said to be the best Mr. Little has ever had in the east. The principal character is in the hands of the talented young actress, Miss Edith Ma. There will be a grand children's matinee on Saturday afternoon. Seats are now on sale at Genter's store.

When Nature

Needs assistance it may be best to render it promptly, but one should remember to use even the most perfect remedies only when needed. The best and most simple and gentle remedy is the Syrup of Figs, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Company.

Low Rates to Wheeling via B. &amp; O.

For the Columbus Day celebration at Wheeling on Friday, October 21, the Baltimore & Ohio railroad will sell excursion tickets at rate of one fare for the round trip from Grafton, Cambridge, Washington, Pa., and all intermediate stations to Wheeling. Tickets will be sold on October 21 only, and will be good for return journey until October 22, inclusive.

BEGINE is non-poisonous to human life, but is the most deadly bane to insect life. 25 cents at all dealers.

THE HUB—ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS.

A TEXAS SAWMILL

Some years ago there was conspicuously posted the following forcible admonition: "DON'T MONKEY WITH THE BUZZ SAW." Devoid of elegance, non-poetic, but in a garb of slang, this gem phrase of the "Wild and Woolly West" traveled from that sawmill with all its flavor of originality, throughout the width and breadth of this great land. It has been accepted as one of the greatest of metaphors and ranks as an Americanism of the first order, but what of that which it admonishes you against—THE BUZZ SAW? It has for its sole object on earth only one purpose, and that is to go through whatever it comes in contact with. The proprietors of this imp of steel knowing its great danger were inspired to write the terse phrase just quoted. But how applicable is this whole thing to retail commerce, particularly the clothing branch of it. How like the Buzz Saw is the dealer who sells you an ill-made and poorly fitting garment for the price of a good one, yet the woods are full of these.

Buzz-Saw Clothiers,

Whose object, like their prototype, is to go through whatever they come in contact with. We place ourselves in the position of that forcible piece of advice and say to the buyer of Clothing ready made

"DON'T MONKEY WITH THE BUZZ SAW."

Danger to your dollars lies in their judgment, makes and materials. You owe it to your hard earnings that what you spend is well spent. If your judgment is at fault when it comes to makes and qualities, why patronize dealers whose judgment is constitutionally at fault for want of proper experience in the clothing business. (This is general.) We have made Tailor-made Clothing a study for years and we can talk it and sell it intelligently. Profit-saving on our part is money-saving on your part when you deal with us. From now until Christmas we shall give unheard of values in our Clothing and Furnishing Departments, and if you are in it with us we shall make this the banner month of our business career.

Our $10.00, $12.00 and $15.00.
